Brett Sherman is a distinguished attorney and a valued addition to MAJS in 2026. Brett comes to MAJS with a wealth of experience in representing public safety employees across a comprehensive spectrum of legal matters.

His practice encompasses adept handling of internal affairs investigations, pre-disciplinary "Skelly" hearings, grievances, post-disciplinary appeals before administrative bodies, and criminal proceedings. Brett's commitment to excellence is evident in his track record of delivering exceptional legal counsel to clients in the realm of labor and employment law. His extensive familiarity with the Public Safety Officers and Firefighters Procedural Bill of Rights Acts underscores his comprehensive understanding of the legal landscape.

In addition to his role as a dedicated advocate for public safety employees, Brett plays a pivotal role in representing unions during the meet and confer process, addressing working conditions, and negotiating terms of employment.

Brett's practice extends to representing law enforcement officers involved in critical incidents and officer-involved shootings. Additionally, he serves as an advocate for licensed healthcare professionals — including registered nurses, licensed vocational nurses, paramedics, emergency medical technicians, and others — who are navigating investigations, accusations, or disciplinary actions brought by California licensing boards and certifying entities.

During his undergraduate studies, Brett distinguished himself as a Member of the Pre-Law Society and Order of Omega Honor Society. He interned for and later directed the Welfare Rights Organization, where he provided crucial legal information to indigent community members and contributed to cases argued before Administrative Law Judges. This multifaceted experience equips Brett with a distinctive edge when navigating the administrative process on behalf of individuals.
